Thy Kingdom Come, Thy Will be Done

(Written and first published in 2003)

The winds of change are blowing, not as a breeze, but as a mighty rushing wind, a hurricane, if you will. God is breathing on America and all phony pretenses, especially our government and the church as we know it, will be blown away as they are all built with man's will, proving itself futile. America is no more noble or corrupt than the people who live within the arms she embraces.

We are living in probably the most interesting and drastic times since the inception of the human race. Are you aware that the real America is being born out of the womb we now call America? The true patriots of the real America are the ones protesting against the unrighteous rule of government. The traitors are the ones standing with a system that is corrupted and tyrannical. Nation is being born out of a nation. We see a world being born out of a world. We see an age being born out of an age; the real church being born out of the dead womb we now call church. We see the birth of a new creation, where there is no male or female, no Greek, no Jew, no race consciousness, as the change is in our inner man — the seen always made from the unseen.

Old things are passing away; behold, all things are being made new. The old is nothing more than a filthy wine skin whose time has run out.

Saying all of that leads me to some interesting things for all of us to ponder. Seeing as we consider ourselves a Christian nation I would like to ask some “did you knows”.

Did you know that the human being as he is born cannot understand the things of God any more than your pet dog can? The only difference between man and animal is that man is not complete, or innocent, as is the animal world. Also, man can receive Christ so as to be made whole. Christ came to change our inner man so God can make His abode in us, thus completing man made in His image.

Did you know that we do not go to heaven when we die? As a matter of fact man, as we are born, cannot go to heaven. He would think it was hell. (Did you know) That the kingdom of God is coming to earth in the hearts of you and me and all who are willing to give up their wills?

Do you not find it odd that the Christians have been praying “Thy kingdom come” — and, oh alas, “Thy will be done” — for 2000 years, and they are the ones rejecting His coming? Did you know that the in-part gospel you have been taught is not the gospel taught by Paul or Jesus? That the church as we know it is a tare and will not enter the next age?

I was looking out the window at Piecemakers and the beautiful eucalyptus trees were gently swaying in the breeze. Suddenly I noticed that most of the trees had branches that looked like the real growing out of them. The bark was a little different in color but the leaves looked the same. Wow! I found out these branches were suckers sapping the life out of the real tree — takers, not givers of life. That describes the church and also our government. The church has taken money for a gospel that did nothing for our eternal life. Our government has bled dry our economy with phony promises — both tares that will not stand the test of the Mighty, Rushing Wind. However, let us get a little closer to home — our very nature is a taker, a tare and will be blown away as chaff in the wind.

Because the real is being birthed, we find the counterfeit showing up, be it a human being, a business, a government or a church — all will be scrutinized by the light of a holy God.

If the above truth scares you, it is meant to. We are in dire straits. The world, or age, as we know it is passing away, and what “you are” will not suffice. For the rolling in of a new age with God's will running things will force us to change or be wiped out.

A new civilization is being born. With it will come new forms of government, new forms of farming, new forms of education, new forms of energy, new modes of travel, new relationships, new family structure. And my dear friend, those of you who are set in your ways will be left behind unless you become pliable in the Master's hands.

How many of you know your reasoning is not God's reasoning, that your thoughts are not God's thoughts, that your tongue is an evil member and starts the fires of hell, that your ways are not His ways?

The Bible says the new age is as day is to night, as life is to death. Did you know you are still spiritually dead even though you perhaps have met Christ?? You only become alive as you meet God and are resurrected. Did you know our reasoning and wisdom are demonic and of the prince of the world, the devil?? Do not trust our government officials as doing right in God's eyes. Do not be too sure that God is on our side. Pray we are on His side doing His will.

This message is the only message of hope you will get in a world so corrupt it is decaying of its own filthiness. Now is the time to not “trust in man whose breath is in his nostrils” but to turn to the God of the Bible, the God who is your Creator. Pray for the Holy Spirit to visit you and help you to change into the creation whose abode is heaven and whose heart is the abode of the living God.

If this message disrupts your comfort zones, thank God for it. It is doing exactly what it is meant to do. There are two paths being taken — two races being run. One is the path that leads to destruction and many are going thereof, and the other is the race being run as we seek first the kingdom of God. Few there be that find it and then, hopefully more will find it, also.

See you at the finish line. There is one prize to be won and that is “Christ Himself,” with all the treasures of the snow.
