Health Care — Bail Out

Take all money paid in taxes, put it in a can buried in your back yard. Use that money in case sickness happens. That will cut out all the government leeches with no brain, no common sense — just a blood sucking vacuum. Doctors can get rid of all the staff needed to handle red tape, thus lowering fees.

We may also be surprised at the drop in number of doctors' visitations.

Our paranoia will disappear rapidly when we cut out our fairy godmother and pay directly out of our pocket.
