

Government

Dear Email Friends,

I'm reading Chris Norby's "State of the O.C." and I want to scream, "Hello — where have you been that you are unaware of the California dream turned nightmare?" You have already cut off the hand that feeds you and we — the tax payers — are all just awaiting the big thud as you fall from your deceptive perch.

Adios O.C. God have mercy on you all.

Marie

Marie Kolasinski